

York County Audubon Society and Hog Island Ornithology Camp

York County Audubon Society is sponsoring a teacher or adult community leader involved in environmental education for the Hog Island Field Ornithology course in Bremen, Maine on June 20-25, 2010. YCAS's partial scholarship will pay 70% of the cost of the course and Queen Mary multiple-shared occupancy: $895.00 (recipient can upgrade accommodations at own expense).

Please submit your application by March 10, 2010 to the following:
David Doubleday, Box 7093, Cape Porpoise, ME 04014

Name_____

Address_____

Email_____ Phone_____

In 2-3 paragraphs explain how you hope to use what you will learn from the Field Ornithology course with the group of youth with whom you work. For more information about the camp please go to www.puffinproject.org

YCAS members: Please share this with someone that you think might be interested.