

Shorebird Ambassadors - Job Description

We NEED someone with a(n):

- Positive attitude
- Willingness and ability to learn basics of shorebird ID and biology
- Ability to attend at least one training (virtual recording is okay, but live and on-site training is preferred, if possible)
- Interest in sharing information and appreciation for migratory shorebirds with others
- Ability to get to sites (beaches and/or other coastal areas with migratory shorebirds), walk/paddle, and talk to the public

We WANT someone with the:

- Ability to engage a variety of ages about how to help migrating birds
- Interest in learning more about shorebirds
- Comfort approaching strangers and a variety of types of people

We GIVE someone:

- Training on basic shorebird ID and biology
- Training on how to interact with the public
- Ideas for sites to visit (some have free parking, while others do not or require State Park Pass)
- Outreach materials (stickers and postcards)
- Shorebird Ambassador Lanyard with phone numbers, shorebird basics, etc.